Brindley Beach Vacations Shatters Summer Booking Records

Outer Banks Vacationers Heading to Duck and Corolla, North Carolina Citing Great Values

Corolla, NC – July 2009 / Brindley Beach Vacations / Press Release – Brindley Beach Vacations a leading vacation rental and real estate firm located in the Outer Banks of North Carolina reports that the summer of 2009 is continuing to break records for occupancy in June, July and August.

Brindley Beach Vacations booked over two million dollars in vacation rentals in both May and June and is expecting a new record of over 1.7 million dollars booked for July. For the summer, Brindley Beach Vacations is currently reporting increased occupancy over the summer of 2008 with a current occupancy of over 86%. With last-minute bookings remaining strong they will only continue to improve occupancy for their homeowners in the face of conventional wisdom. We always knew they would be here; we just had to make it easy and affordable.

“Our entire team is overjoyed to be able to announce these outstanding booking and occupancy numbers. It is through working closely with our homeowners and listening to our clients that we have been able to strike the right balance to provide vacationers outstanding values in vacation rentals,” stated Doug Brindley, Owner of Brindley Beach Vacations & Sales. “We know the economy is tough right now – but we also know that people still desire and deserve a quality vacation and we are fortunate enough to have not one but two locations that are shining stars in Outer Banks vacation rentals that are budget friendly and appeal to every member of the family – Corolla and Duck! Our value proposition hit home with vacationers this May and has not let up and in fact has picked up steam. There still are some outstanding values to be had for those vacationers looking for a last-minute vacation before school starts or for those looking to enjoy the great August and September weather when the beaches get quieter. The Brindley Beach Vacations team invites interested vacationers to visit us online at www.BrindleyBeach.com or to call us at 877-642-3224 to find the exceptional value they deserve this summer.”
