Travelers Are Choosing Costa Rica As Reports of Random Violence and Concerns for Personal Safety Haunt Mexico and other Central American Countries

Los Sueños, Costa Rica – May 2009/Costa Rica Luxury Rentals/Press Release – Costa Rica’s Reputation as the Safest Nation in Central America Is Boosting Vacation Rentals according to Marcela Laborde, President of Costa Rica Luxury Rentals and Tours, located on the Central Pacific coast of Costa Rica within the confines of the world renowned Los Sueños Resort and Marina.

“We’re reaping the benefit through additional bookings from discerning travelers choosing ‘Costa Rica –as a safe alternative for vacationing in Latin America’ over other regional options,” says Laborde.

Seasoned business and recreational travelers have known for some time that, Costa Rica has long been considered one of, if not the safest nation in Latin America. Costa Rica abolished its military in the mid-twentieth century and has a long history of peace and stability earning the nickname ‘The Switzerland of The Americas’.

Costa Rica is a politically and socially stable country with a government committed to the safety of its citizens and visitors.

“We understand that planning travel in today’s day and age with its’ increased emphasis on safety brings with it anxieties and worries and we want to help alleviate these concerns in regards to Costa Rica”, Laborde adds, “Our number one concern is for the health & safety of our clients and then providing them with the means to create the experience of their lifetime in Costa Rica and our team including our Diamond Concierge Service are standing by to answer any questions and concerns travelers may have about their stay with Costa Rica Luxury Rentals.”
